INVESTOR REVIEW

CANADA'S PRIVATE INVESTMENT MAGAZINE

Investor Review magazine is a not-for-profit bi-annual digital publication which focuses on private investing.

This magazine is part of a larger educational platform including a website (investorreview.ca) and newsletters targeted at the Canadian private investor community. Private investments are unique investments outside the realm of templated investments presented by banks, stock markets or other publicly available products. Private investment examples include investing in real estate, lending a mortgage privately, joining a business venture, taking a stake in a private company and more.

Investor Review Magazine will be circulated digitally to our database of circa. 10,000 self-employed, business owners, professionals and investors and will also be marketed online on Facebook and Google AdWords to this target market in the public.
